ST. PAUL TWIRLER BRINGS A FANCY PRICE TO OWNER

Barney Dreyfuss Pays $22,500 for O'Toole.

A Deal is on for Billy Kelly, O'Toole's Battery Partner—It is Said That Dreyfuss Has Offered $10,000 For Him—Owner Lennon Wants $12,000

Minneapolis, Minn., July 24.—President Barney Dreyfuss of the Pittsburgh Pirates, declared today he was not sure that he had been compelled to pay $22,500 for the St. Paul twirler, the star pitcher of the American association. The price, the largest by $10,000 ever paid for the services of a single baseball player, is likely to remain unbroken for years.

"I believe O'Toole will make a success with the Pirates from the start," said Dreyfuss. "Rube Marquard, the 'old money' beauty, seemed to have his head turned when he created a flurry. As soon as they got his head down to normal size, he showed he was a wonderful pitcher. But I see a bigger future for O'Toole. He is a bigger man—a greater pitcher, and one who will be able to step in and help Pittsburgh on top without taking a couple of seasons to get adjusted to the big league way of doing business."

O'Toole's plea with Dreyfuss to buy Billy Kelly, his battery partner, is said to have been pathetic. The pitcher, almost with tears in his eyes, pleaded with Dreyfuss to buy Kelly if he could possibly see his way clear to do so. The men are almost like brothers in their affection for each other.

"It was Kelly, I came here for in the first place," said Dreyfuss. "For I was not sure I would be able to land O'Toole. The fans need not be surprised if I land him too. I can see another good catcher pretty well."

It was declared today that Dreyfuss already has offered $10,000 cash for Kelly, but it is said the owner, Lennon, refused to consider less than $12,000, which in itself would be a record breaking price for a backstop.

FINE CUT FOR FANS
There are many people who do not play baseball but who are willing to admit they are the best in their class, who are willing to sell their services—and throw their souls in it—for $22,500. Any bidder?

Yet that eminent Bavarian, Marty O'Toole, brought that sum to make opposing batters walk the plank for the Pirates.

Has anybody here seen Kelly? The St. Paul backstopper, made brilliant by O'Toole's reflected glory, didn't figure in the biggest sale in the history of baseball.

After his experience with "Lefty" Russell, Connie Mack was NOT a bidder for Mr. O'Toole.

Walter Johnson, the "come back" hold one, is still earning that $7,000 a year and the Browns are willing to admit it. He allowed but five hits of which Lauroie, the Yankee cust-off, got three.

After a brief pause, George Stovall's Naps started off again on a winning tack. Of course he had to end on Larry, the crimped pinch hitter, to deliver the hit that tied the score.

Gregg and Mitchell held the speed boys to six scattering hits.

Gaspard outpitched Sallee but it takes more than that to stop Roger Bresnahan's fast coming Cardinals.

The Yankee trimmed the Tigers again. Of eleven games, three teams have played this year. Hal Chase's men have annexed nine, making the last series four straight.

Will some please rise now and say this is the beginning of the end for the Tigers? For that's just where the bricks begin to fly. "Cause it ain't."

Major league owners have declined to permit a transfer of the Boston National league franchise to Baltimore, at least for this year.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

One of the largest week day crowds of the season was out to see the double-header at Lima Saturday. The second game furnished plenty of excitement, although there was little to enthuse over in the first one.

Washington, July 24.—Representative Edward W. Townsend, one-time newspaper man of Montclair, N. A crowd gathered to watch the unusual sight. The little seal is named George. Mr. Townsend is responsible for the investigation, now in progress, of the charge of indiscriminate banishment of the great seal herd of the Pribilof Islands. George is Exhibit A.

Richmond, Va., July 24.—Indifferent to the serious predicament in which he is placed, Harry Charles Beattie, Jr., the alleged wife slayer, spent the day in reading novels and the newspaper accounts of the coroner's inquest. In a nearby cell his cousin, Paul Beattie, held as a commonwealth witness, also read the newspaper with interest. In the woman's room across the corridor Beattie listened to the "woman in the case" spent the day alone, having been denied counsel.

Three a Homer—Lallier Hits Home Run.

Piqua, O., July 24.—(Special.) After a week of success, the Piqua baseball club was defeated at the hands of Marion in the presence of 1,800 people. Sunday afternoon at Stein park. Goshorn of the home team and Seneff of the Diggers both pitched good games; but in the seventh, the visitors got a little the best of the Piqua twirler and bunched three of their runs. As it was, however, Marion got but eight hits and the Favorites pounded out six.

It was in the third inning, when Colligan muffed Geyer's fly and allowed him to get to first. It was a serious error for there were two gone and the runs that inning could have been avoided. Reilly followed Geyer with a two-base fly to right and Geyer scored the first run of the game. Piqua tried hard to tally up some more runs but Seneff didn't let them get away with him. In the seventh, Prysock sent the hopes of the rooters sky high by knocking a home run at the first crack at the bat but no one else could even get a scratch hit. It certainly was not Piqua's day to win.

In the fourth inning for the visitors, Lallier struck out and then Meehan got a walk and stole second. He was just in the right place to dust home when Lindbeck selected a good spot for a fly in the right field. The next two men went out. Three runs were tallied in the seventh and made the grand stand feel blue. Kelley was hit by the pitcher, and Weller sacrificed. Hummel and Smith knocked two batters and Seneff a single, and when it was all over three runs had crossed the plate. The last run the Diggers was made in the ninth, when Lallier's hit brought Smith home. Score:

SATURDAY'S GAMES.
(By John R. Markham.)
Lima, O., July 24.—Five pitchers figured in the first game which was one of those brutal slugging matches so common during the early part of the season. Munk and Schanze were driven from the rubber by the visitors while Jerger, the new finger, could not stop their fierce advance. His usual luck was not with Chief McCintock and Manager Lewis had to call upon Goulait to check the home team, which threatened to tie up the score in the fourth inning. Two fingers were called upon by the visiting manager to the second game, which had to go to eleven instead of seven. Nelson Sandherr cleaned the bases with a terrific three-cushion swat via the stations clogged with one down in the seventh, after it looked like the Diggers would depart with a shutout to their credit. Cooper took up the hurling in the eighth and the home team did not score any more upon him, although they threatened a bit in his last inning.

Kelley Triples.
Munk's support got him in bad early in the opening. With two down in the first long booted Meehan's error rolled. Lindbeck drew a walk and stole second and Kelley cleaned the bases with a three-base swat to center. Munk walked Hummel as a starter in the second. Smith tried to sacrifice but beat out a hunt to the pitcher when a play was made for Hummel. Kelley, McCintock sacrificed. Colligan singled to center and Munk beat a safety retreat to the shelter of the bench. Schanze succeeded him on the rubber. Lallier hit into a fast double play to Long, which revolved about McCintock, and it looked like the little southpaw would be able to hold the hard hitting visitors.

A little more than one round was the limit of Schanze's endurance. Meehan, Lindbeck and Kelley singled in succession as the opening to the third. Weller was safe at first when Nesser threw out Meehan at home. Hummel walked in with a single which scored two and McCintock singled. Colligan hit to Schanze for the final count.

Lallier started things in the fourth by tripping to left. Schanze was then yanked and Jerger sent to the slab. He hit a man during the first inning but managed to get by without further scoring. He held the visitors down in the fifth and sixth but a single by Lindbeck and another triple by Kelley brought two more tallies in the seventh. Weller following Kelley's three-base drive with a sacrifice fly to left.

Lindbeck got a home run in the ninth.

middle, scoring himself on Friend's sacrifice fly to Meehan. Neither side scored in the eighth and ninth, although the locals came near to it in the eighth. Burke opened with a single, was sacrificed by Osborne and went to third on West's infield tap. He was caught off that base and the Beams' hopes of victory died with the throw.

Three in the Tenth.

In the tenth Osborne walked McCintock. Goulait, batting for Lindbeck, hit to Osborne who threw to catch McCintock at second. The Indian was safe when Sandherr dropped the ball. Weller then hit to Long and one run was forced across when Hummel was hit. Smith hit to Nesser who threw out Goulait at home. Burke tried to get the ball to Nesser in time to complete a double play, but hit the runner, Weller, scoring. One run would have been enough to win for the locals were unable to do anything in their half of the tenth. Score:
